

Brief Biosketch

Sepideh Amin-Hanjani, MD FAANS FACS FAHA

Dr Amin-Hanjani is tenured Professor and Residency Program Director in the Department of Neurosurgery at the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC), where she serves as Co-Director of Neurovascular Surgery, with clinical work and research focused on treatment of cerebrovascular disease. She is an active contributor to several national committees including serving as the Past Chair of the American Association of Neurological Surgeons (AANS)/Congress of Neurological Surgeons (CNS) Joint Guidelines Review Committee, and the current Chair of the Scientific Statement Oversight Committee of the American Heart Association Stroke Council. She has previously served as Chair of the AANS/CNS Cerebrovascular Section, and as a Member at Large of the CNS Executive Committee. Dr Amin-Hanjani became a Diplomate of the American Board of Neurological Surgery in 2004; she is also an elected member of the Society of Neurological Surgeons, the American Academy of Neurological Surgery and Society of University Neurosurgeons, a Fellow of the American Heart Association and American College of Surgeons, and serves as a Medical Advisory Board Regional Co-director for the Brain Aneurysm Foundation. She has authored over 150 publications and 30 book chapters, and participates in editorial review for multiple journals, including serving on the Editorial Board of Stroke, Journal of Neurosurgery and Neurosurgery.